

Figure 1. Scatter plot showing the relationship between the number of fish (Y-axis) and the number of fish per square meter (X-axis). The data points are scattered, showing a positive correlation.