

Figure 1. Relationship between the number of fish traps and the number of fish caught. The solid curve represents a non-linear fit to the data, and the dashed line represents a linear fit.